First Sunday in Lent

A Message from Fr. Mark

Today we start at the beginning, with the first reading of the first Sunday of Lent which begins: "The LORD God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life..." Life began with God who spoke and breathed in such a way that it happened and "it was very good." What happened next was our fault. The problems began when the man and the woman forgot about God who breathed life and listened to the serpent who breathed lies. The serpent told the first lie. It was a lie about God. The serpent said that they shouldn't trust God because he wanted to prevent them from "being like gods." The devil said that God was jealous and so he wanted to prevent them from eating the fruit of the tree. The serpent said: "You certainly will not die! No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods."

When they ate it, however, their eyes were opened, and they realized the big mistake they had made. This first lie was the biggest of lies because it was the complete opposite of the truth about God. God wants to give us his life and to make us "like gods". That was God's plan all along (cf. 1John 3:2). Adam and Eve tried to steal something that God had already promised them. God made us "in his image" so that we could "rule" with him (Gn. 1:26-28).

The rest is history. Human beings sinned. God sent his Son to save us and restore us as his children. Jesus was tempted also, but he rejected the lies of the devil and kept trusting his father. Lent is a time for us to stop allowing our eyes to wander and to fix on the material things that distract us from God. We make Lenten resolutions to control our eyes, our appetites and our use of social media. We might decide to restrain from sweets, meats, tweets, and treats. As St. Therese said:

"Let us keep our eyes fixed on heaven, the only goal of all of our efforts."

Jesus recommended three ways of focusing on heaven. He said we should pray, fast and give alms. Here in our parish during Lent, there will be opportunities for us to do these things. We fix our eyes on the Lord during Eucharistic Adoration. There will be more opportunities to attend daily Mass and frequent confession. On Fridays, we gather to eat meatless soup and participate in the Stations of the Cross. We can contribute to feeding the poor and supporting the parish and the Bishop's Ministry Appeal. If you do these things, then you will be "children of your heavenly father", and "your light shall rise in the darkness!" (cf. Mt. 5:48; Is. 58:10).

Sincerely, Fr. Mark

Saint of the Week

St. Katharine Drexel

Feast Day: March 3

The daughter of a wealthy Philadelphia banker, Katharine received marriage proposals but wanted to become a contemplative nun. After inheriting a fortune, she visited the Dakotas and witnessed American Indians' poverty, subsequently pleading with Pope Leo XIII to send them more missionaries. But he and others encouraged her to found a congregation to work among people of color. In 1891, she and thirteen companions became the first Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament. For more than forty years, she led the order, using her fortune to establish numerous missions and schools for Native Americans and African Americans. In all, she established 50 missions for American Indians in 16 states. By 1942, she had a system of African American Catholic schools in 13 states, plus 40 mission centers and 23 rural schools. Following a heart attack in 1935, which limited her missionary travel, she retired to a life of prayer, and passed away 20 years later at the age of 96 and canonized in 2000.

"Katharine Drexel is an excellent example of that practical charity and generous solidarity with the less fortunate which has long been the distinguishing mark of American Catholics. May her example help young people in particular to appreciate that no greater treasure can be found in this world than in following Christ with an undivided heart and in using generously the gifts we have received." St. John Paul II

Prayer for Lent

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle;
be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
and do you, O prince of the heavenly host,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan and the other evil spirits
who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen

Oración por el Cuaresmal

San Miguel Arcángel, defiéndenos en la batalla;
Sé nuestra defensa contra la maldad y las trampas del diablo.
Que Dios lo reprenda, rezamos humildemente;
y tú, oh príncipe de la anfitrión celestial,
por el poder de Dios
empujado al infierno Satanás y los otros espíritus malignos que me rodean por el mundo por la ruina de las almas.

Amén

NATIONAL CATHOLIC SISTERS WEEK (MARCH 8-14)

We will shine the spotlight on religious women, who throughout the Church's History has stood with the poor and immigrants, taught children, fought injustice, healed the sick, shared their spirituality, empowered women, defended the planet, promoted peace, created community, and offered hope. All of which, are continued today. Next weekend, Sister Katherine Hamilton, a Dominican Sister of San Rafael, will share her vocational call and the work of the Dominican Sisters at the 8:45, 10:30, 2:15 and 5:00pm Masses this weekend and 5:00 pm Saturday the 14th.
