A Message from Fr. Mark

In today's Gospel Jesus tells the parable of the two men praying in the temple: one a repentant tax collector and the other a self-righteous Pharisee whose prayer seems more like bragging that he is better than others: "I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income." (Luke 18:12)

The point of the parable is that we must always be humble that it is not enough just to do certain external practices and give a certain amount. God wants our hearts.

There is a danger for those who do a lot of praying and fasting but whose hearts are not converted. They can become proud.

St. Maximilian Kolbe once taught that there are three important means to becoming a saint: 1) prayer, 2) fasting or voluntary penance and 3) enduring sickness. He then said that of these three, the best of them all is the third one: being sick. He explained that with the first two there is a danger of pride. Those who become experts in prayer can sometimes become proud, thinking that they are better than others. Those who become accustomed to doing bodily penance can also become proud, thinking that they are stronger than others. Pride can creep in because they start to think that they are better than others at enduring pain.

The third is the best because there is no danger of pride. No one is proud of being sick. Those who are sick must humbly acknowledge their weakness and rely on others. It is the easiest way to become a saint because the person must rely completely on God. It is difficult, but we must try to see sickness as a blessing.

Some people might use this as an excuse to neglect their time of prayer and forgo fasting. They say that they do not want to appear holier than others. But this is false humility. We must continue to do acts of prayer and penance, as Jesus recommended (Matthew 17:21). We must do this despite the fact that people might accuse us of trying to be "holier than thou." We must remember the beautiful poem which was a favorite of Saint Teresa of Calcutta: "...If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives. Be kind anyway.

If you are successful, you will win some unfaithful friends and some genuine enemies. Succeed anyway...

If you find serenity and happiness, some may be jealous. Be happy anyway... Give the best you have, and it will never be enough. Give your best anyway.

In the final analysis, it is between you and God. It was never between you and them anyway."

The Solemnity of All Saints

Feast Day: November 1 (Holy Day of Obligation)

All Hallows' Day, the Solemnity of All Saints, or All Saints' Day is a celebration of all Catholic saints held on November 1 each year. "On this solemnity, we recall the holy men and women who, having completed their earthly journeys, now live forever with God. These saints, though not canonized, offer us models of abiding faith and love of God and neighbor" (Essential Guide to Seasons and Saints, 109).

In the Catholic Church, we are called to imitate and venerate saints because of their heroically virtuous lives, martyrdom, or their offering of life for others. But, what does veneration mean and why do we pray to the saints?

Veneration of the saints fosters our faith in God and does not detract from it. Rather, our faith in God is strengthened by our relationship with our brothers and sisters in the faith who are in heaven. The Church teaches that by imitating the virtues lived by the saints, the saints brings us closer to Christ. When we ask the saints to pray for us, we ask them to join their wills with the will of God and intercede for us here on earth. This is the Communion of Saints which we profess every Sunday in the Creed. In his homily on the Solemnity of All Saints in 2015, Pope Francis said, "Let us ask the Lord for the grace to be simple and humble people, the grace to be able to weep, the grace to be meek, the grace to work for justice and peace, and above all the grace to let ourselves be forgiven by God so as to become instruments of his mercy. This is what the Saints did, those who have preceded us to our heavenly home. They accompany us on our earthly pilgrimage, they encourage us to go forward. May their intercession help us to walk on Jesus' path, and to obtain eternal happiness for our deceased brothers and sisters, for whom we offer this Mass."

Children's Prayer / Oración Para Niños

Prayer to Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary

O Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, in these times of such brazen impiety, manifest thy power with the signs of thine ancient victories.

From thy throne whence thou dispense pardon and grace, mercifully regard the Church of thy Son, His Vicar on Earth, and every order of clergy, religious, and laity, who are oppressed in this mighty conflict.

Thou who art powerful, the vanquisher of all heresies, hasten the hour of mercy, even though the hour
of God's justice is every day provoked
by the countless sins of men, the sons and daughters of Adam.

Obtain for me, the least of men,
kneeling before thee in supplication, the grace I need to live righteously upon earth, in order to be numbered among the just in heaven.

In the company of all faithful Christians
throughout the world, I salute thee
and acclaim thee as Queen of the Most Holy Rosary.

Queen of the Most Holy Rosary pray
for us.

Amen

Oración a Nuestra Señora del Santísimo Rosario

Oh Reina del Santísimo Rosario, en estos
tiempos de tan descarada impiedad, manifiesta tu poder con los signos de tus
antiguas victorias.

Desde tu trono de donde dispensa perdón
y gracia, mira misericordiosamente a la Iglesia de tu Hijo, Su Vicario en la Tierra, y
a todas las órdenes de clérigos, religiosos
y laicos, que están oprimidos en este poderoso conflicto.

Tú, que eres poderoso, vencedor de todas
las herejías, apresura la hora de la misericordia, aunque la hora de la justicia
de Dios es provocada todos los días por los innumerables pecados de los hombres,
los hijos e hijas de Adán.

Obtén para mí, el menor de los hombres,
arrodillado ante ti en súplica, la gracia que necesito para vivir rectamente sobre la tierra, para ser contado entre los justos en el cielo.

En compañía de todos los cristianos fieles
del mundo,

Te saludo y te aclama como Reina del
Santísimo Rosario.

Reina del Santísimo Rosario reza por
nosotros.

Amén

RESPECT LIFE MONTH CHRIST OUR HOPE: IN EVERY SEASON OF LIFE

In this time of ever-increasing attacks on the life and dignity of the human person, we as the people of God need to be conscious of our call to evangelize, to bring Christ, our hope, into every season of life. To better serve God's people and meet the needs of families, we plan to expand our office of Respect Life to include Family Life Ministry. With this expansion we will provide resources and support to address the everyday realities of marriage and family life. We need to have Diocesan resources for the many seasons a family might encounter including:

- Christian Marriage (preparation and enrichment)
- Natural Family Planning
- Parenting (in times of crisis and just the everyday)
- Single, Divorced and Separated Catholics
- Experiences of death and/or End of Life Preparation

As we work together promote a Culture of Life, let us ask the Lord of Life, Jesus, to lead us on the way.

INTERCESSIONS FOR THE SANCTITY OF HUMAN LIFE

For all Catholics:

That during this Respect Life Month we may recommit ourselves to upholding the dignity of every human life; We pray to the Lord:

That during this Respect Life Month our hope in Christ's resurrection will strengthen us in protecting the gift of human life; We pray to the Lord:

That the life of every human person, from conception to natural death, might be protected in our laws and cherished in our hearts; We pray to the Lord:

For women and men suffering after abortion: may the Church's abortion healing ministry help them find peace and healing through Christ's endless mercy; We pray to the Lord:

For those nearing the end of life: may they receive care that respects their dignity and protects their lives as they place their hope in the promise of eternal life; We pray to the Lord:

May God grant us the wisdom and courage to lovingly protect His gift of human life at every stage, in sickness and in health; We pray to the Lord:
