Thirty-second

Sunday in Ordinary

November 10, 2019

A Message from Fr. Mark

In the month of November, when the days grow shorter and darker, and as we get close to the end of the year, we always hear readings at Mass about the end of the world.

Today's Gospel refers to the end of our earthly lives, with Jesus speaking about our hope for resurrection and eternal life. At the time of Jesus, there were Jewish leaders called Sadducees, who did not believe in the resurrection, nor eternal life. Nor did they believe in angels. They believed that death was the end and the only hope was to live a long life on this earth, and to get married and have children so that you would not be forgotten when you die. It was these Sadducees who approached Jesus in today's Gospel reading and tried to test him by proposing a ridiculous story about a woman who had been married to seven husbands. They were trying to prove that there could not be a heaven because there would be confusion about whose wife she would be. But Jesus had a brilliant answer in which he mentioned both the heavenly afterlife and angels: "The children of this age marry and remarry; but those who are deemed worthy to attain to the coming age and to the resurrection of the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. They can no longer die, for they are like angels; and they are the children of God because they are the ones who will rise." Jesus was more in line with a Jewish group called the Essenes who believed in the rewards of heaven and who also had a very strong belief in angels. They even formed a community in the desert at a place called Qumran where they live a life of celibacy and asceticism. Let us pray that we can imitate their faith and that many young men and women will also choose a vocation to the priesthood or religious life!

My steps have been steadfast in your paths, my feet have not faltered. I call upon you, for you will answer me,

O God.

Saint of the Week

Saint Frances Cabrini

Feast Day: November 13

In 1946, Mother Cabrini was the first U.S. citizen to be canonized; she is the universal patron of immigrants. She was born in Italy, the youngest of 13 children, and became a schoolteacher. Denied admission to two religious orders because of frail health, she was given charge of an orphanage in Codogno. In 1880 she founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart with seven of her former orphans. The order spread rapidly from northern Italy to Rome, and then in 1889 to New York City, where Mother Cabrini became famous for her work among Italian immigrants.

Before dying of malaria in Chicago, she had opened schools, orphanages and hospitals around the United States, South America and Europe.

November Angel Tree For Christmas

Angel Tree - During the month of November, parishioners have the opportunity to help bring Christmas gifts to Stockton children on behalf of an incarcerated family member through the Angel Tree Program. Angel tags for gifts will also include children from our Food Pantry program. Please take an angel tag (or more) from one of the two Angel Trees located at the back and the west entrances of the church. The tag will provide the first name of the child, age, toy request, clothing item with size and message from the family member. Please return the wrapped gift (no bows, please) with the angel tag (we won't know who the gift will belong to without it) and place under either of the two angel trees by Sunday, November 24. Gifts will be delivered to the Angel Tree and Food Pantry families in early December by church volunteers. For more information on the Angel Tree project or to volunteer to deliver to families, please contact Susan Mora Loyko at 479-1944.

Presentation Parish School

Red Ribbon Week closed the month of October. Students made a pledge to state, “Just Say No and Say YES to a Healthy Life”. With each daily theme, the students took time to pray and celebrate healthy living. The week ended with a special guest speaker, Deputy Chris Stevens, talking to the students about “grit” and the Student Council leading a fun rally. Through Student Council efforts and candy sales, we also made a donation to Dominic’s Designated Driver Foundation.

Thanks to our Parent Teacher Organization, Trunk or Treat was a fun community event. The staff, students, families, parish and our neighboring community enjoyed a night of costumes, candy, dancing, and eating. We had 22 decorated trunks for “Tricks and Treats”, face painting, local food trucks and a decorated hay trailer for family photos. Through this event the school was able to donate to the Presentation Parish Food Pantry as they prepare for Thanksgiving meals.

It’s not too late! Come gather with our parish community and create an Advent Wreath for your family! All wreath supplies will be provided and light refreshments will be served. All ages welcome! RSVP by November 10th to <https://signup.com/go/CVcXsOY>.
