Thirty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

A Message from Fr. Mark

"He has made us into a kingdom..."
 Today is the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. The readings today emphasize his greatness, but the second reading it says that Jesus also wants us to be great. He wants us to share in his power. It says that he has "made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father..." (Rev. 1:5-8) By baptism, we are given a share in his power to be priest, prophet, and king. All Catholics are supposed to help Jesus to rule, guide and pray for the world. We know that the saints became stronger and healthier and wiser and more fully alive. The saints developed their natural abilities to the utmost with the help of God. St. Irenaeus wrote, "the Glory of God is man, fully alive."
 We can be proud of the fact that many Catholics have become great and have had a positive influence on the world. Many of the greatest artists and writers and musicians of the world were Catholic, including J.R. Tolkien, William Shakespeare, and Flannery O'Connor. Many great athletes have been outspoken about their Catholic faith helped them through difficult times, including Vince Lombardi, Babe Ruth, Joe DiMaggio, Tommy Lasorda, Brett Favre, Don Shula, and Phillip Rivers. It is important for us to remember that many of the greatest scientists were priests or devout Catholics, including Roger Bacon (Franciscan who invented the scientific method), Blaise Pascal (mathematician and physicist), Louis Pasteur (chemist who invented "pasteurization"), Gregor Mendel (who founded the science of Genetics), Eugenio Barsanti (priest who invented the internal combustion engine), Ramon Llull

November 24, 2019

(invented the first computer), Theodoric Freiberg (priest who gave the first correct explanation of rainbows), Georges Lemaitre (priest physicist who first proposed the theory of the Big Bang). (There are more examples at www.thomism.org/history/catholic_scientists).
 We rejoice today that Jesus is the King, and we also thank him because he has "called us to the glory that made us a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people set apart" (Sunday Preface I).
 Tomorrow evening from 6:00-7:30 PM will be the first of our four Bible Study classes taught by myself and Fr. Joe and Fr. Matthew. By studying the first three chapters of the Gospel of Matthew, we will prepare ourselves to enter fully into the Advent and Christmas season. We will learn how our heavenly King was born for us so that we could be reborn through baptism and share in his royal mission!

Saint of the Week

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE Feast Day: November 24

Celebrated on the last Sunday of the liturgical year, the Solemnity of Christ the King was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925 with his encyclical Quas primas to respond to growing secularism. The Holy Father saw that attempting to "thrust Jesus Christ and his holy law" out of public life would result in continuing discord among people and nations. The Solemnity reminds the faithful that Christ reigns as king of the entire world forever, and it encourages Catholics to respond to this reality through discipleship.

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving will be here in just a few days. Many of us find ourselves so caught up with travel plans and buying the perfect turkey or ham that we let the day pass us by, and all we can focus on is how much we ate and who won the day's football games. Instead, let us begin reflecting daily of all things, great and small, that we are thankful for in life. In the coming days, we can contemplate all those things God has given us. Increased gratitude will also bring us closer to the source of all those good gifts, our God. So, what will Thanksgiving be like for you this year? May God bless you.

Dear Lord,

Today we give thanks for our many blessings. As we pray for those in need, we give thanks for our family and friends. As we pray for those who are lonely, we give thanks for our freedoms. As we pray for those who are oppressed. We give thanks for our good health. As we pray for those who are ill, we give thanks for our comfort and prosperity. As we share our blessings with others, on this day of Thanksgiving, May the love of God enfold us and the joy of God uplifts us.

Amen
