Third Sunday of Advent

A Message from Fr. Mark

Dear Parishioners,

Today's second reading from the Letter of James tells us to be patient during this Advent season: "See how the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. You too must be patient. Make your hearts firm... Do not complain about one another..." (James 5:7-9) This reading is telling us to be patient with God, with other people. I think it also means we should be patient with ourselves. Sometimes our hearts are not firm. We are full of weaknesses and anxieties and fears. We must wait patiently for God to send down the rain of his grace upon our souls so that virtues can grow. But we know exactly to whom we must go to receive those graces. We can go to the Blessed Virgin Mary who is the "Mediatrice of All Graces". Mary is one of the two patron saints of the season of Advent. The other is St. John the Baptist, who also helps us prepare for the coming of the Lord.

Jesus told John the Baptist that he did not have to "wait for another." (Matthew 11:3) We can go to Jesus now! We can adore him in the Eucharist and expect that he will give us all the graces we need. At Christmas, we can go to Jesus and also to Mary. We can be like the three Magi who found Jesus with Mary: "The Magi were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother." (Matthew 2:10-11) She gave us Jesus, and she can give us help to be like Jesus! She gives us peace and joy in the midst of our weaknesses and sins. The graces that we need always pass through her immaculate hands as she offers us her newborn Son!

December 15, 2019

During these Holy Days may we feel a peaceful patience and a quiet calm as we experience the love of Our Lord and Our Lady!

Sincerely,
Fr. Mark

Saint of the Week

St. Peter Canisius

Feast Day: December 21

St. Peter Canisius was assigned to renew the Catholic faith in Germany. As the Jesuit provincial in southern Germany, Austria, and Bohemia, Peter Canisius started schools, colleges, and seminaries. He wrote three catechisms in German and is credited with keeping the southern German peoples Catholic.

“Characteristic of St. Canisius’ spirituality was his profound personal friendship with Jesus. For example, on 4 September 1549 he wrote in his journal, speaking with the Lord: ‘In the end, as if you were opening to me the heart of the Most Sacred Body, which it seemed to me I saw before me, you commanded me to drink from that source, inviting me, as it were, to draw the waters of my salvation from your founts, O my Savior.’ Then he saw that the Savior was giving him a garment with three pieces that were called peace, love and perseverance. And with this garment, made up of peace, love and perseverance, Canisius carried out his work of renewing Catholicism. His friendship with Jesus—which was the core of his personality—nourished by love of the Bible, by love of the Blessed Sacrament and by love of the Fathers, this friendship was clearly united with the awareness of being a perpetuator of the Apostles’ mission in the Church. And this reminds us that every genuine evangelizer is always an instrument united with Jesus and with his Church and is fruitful for this very reason.”

—Pope Benedict XVI, General Audience, February 19, 2011
